1. FPM update – Dennis McCuistion

>Just finished an online review of Federal Program Monitoring (FPM). We have an audit every three years.

Two items highlighted - Compensatory Education (looking at goals and actions for teacher sections purchased) & Uniform Complain Program (UCP)

>Dennis discussed what happened during audit.

During the pre audit, some expected Title 1 purchases weren't allowed. Examples: musical instruments and stipend for classified extra earnings

>Most expenditures are tied to graduation rate & college career readiness.

2. Tentative Budget 2019-2020 - Dennis McCuistion

>Budget for 2019 -2020 was distributed and discussed with SSC – Dennis focused on items that were highlighted in the handout.

>Discussed tentative sections paid for EL support, Co-teach classes, and AVID support. At-risk counselor will be available using Title 1 money.

>Dennis proposed using funds to keep the library open in the evening next year to provide a place for students to study in the evening. Samantha Cuyler thought it is a good idea for students to have a safe place to work. Sally Bowman and Michelle Cuyler seconded the idea.

>Discussion centering on number of parents attending the current technology workshop offered in the library. Karen Wilson thought about 6 parents attended the last meeting.

>Dennis Mc suggested a parent workshop on vaping would be beneficial for next year.

>Arturo U asked for an excel sheet of updated categorical purchases this year. It should be available at the next meeting.

>Parent Engagement suggestion by Arturo U. - Extra earning for staff to have a one on one meeting with at-risk students.

>Parent survey includes questions about what is needed for parents.

3. Principal's Report - Dennis

>Construction update: One phase is finished (snack bar area), the next phase has started – shoring where the major buildings will go. The work will be noisy.

>The 800 restrooms and the staff restrooms by T buildings are to be closed through the remainder of the year because of the construction. Portable restrooms will be brought in during this time.

>Phase 2 Stakeholder Information meeting will be held Wednesday, April 17th from 5:00 – 6:00 pm in the cafeteria. Options will be presented at the meeting.

4. Student's Report - students

>Orange Showcase on Wednesday – The Taco Guy will be selling food during the day. PFSO will be selling food during the Orange Showcase.

>April 27th – Chapman leadership conference

>Club rush and Food day this Wednesday

>Prom Nomination by April 27th

Public Comments on items not on Agenda – None
